

Symposium “Urban Inequality in the Creative City” Heidelberg, July 19-20, 2013

Program

Friday, July 19, 2013

Each network partner is asked to provide a short presentation/statement about his/her anticipations for the international research network, his/her proposed contributions to it and the own perspective to analyze urban inequality in the creative city (20-30 minutes). Each statement is followed by a discussion (10-20 minutes).

- 9.15 a.m. Ulrike Gerhard, Michael Hölscher, Heidelberg
Welcome
Introduction: Aim of the symposium
Comparative Perspective on Urban Inequality
- 10:00 a.m. Linda McDowell, Oxford
Gender & Urban Inequality
- 10.45 a.m. Coffee break
- 11.15 a.m. Thomas Hutton, Vancouver
Inequality in the Cultural Economy of the City
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch Break
- 1:30 p.m. Ferenc Gyuris, Budapest
Theories of Inequality
- 2.15 p.m. David Wilson, Urbana-Champaign
Racialized Urban Economies
- 3.00 p.m. Coffee break
- 3.30 p.m. Günter Leypoldt, Heidelberg
Cultural Poetics of Urban Inequality
- 4.15 p.m. Eberhard Rothfuss, Bayreuth
Inequality and the Every-day Life - Perspectives from the Global South
- 5.00 p.m. Helmut Anheier, Heidelberg
Urban Inequality & Civil Society
- 6:00 p.m. End of the session

Saturday, July 20, 2013

This morning is reserved for the conceptualization of a common research framework. All participants are asked to reflect on the previous day and to create a vision for future common international and/or interdisciplinary research.

- 9.15 a.m. All participants
- Common interests
- Conceptualizing a common research framework
- 11:00 a.m. Coffee break
- 11.30 a.m. Setting up a time schedule
- Planning a possible next symposium 2014
- Future funding
- 1.00 p.m. Lunch Break
- 3.00 p.m. End of symposium